

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to compel
their television
stations to air an anti-John Kerry
infomercial days
before the election
is a clear violation of "equal time"
broadcasting rules
and is grounds for revocation of their
licensing.
Moreover, the information reported to be contained in the advertisement
termed documentary
is proven to be factually false and
misleading.
Accordingly,
Sinclair willfully
and directly
violates the FTC Act
by forcing their stations to run the infomercial/documentary.

Sinclair should be
enjoined from airing
the infomercial
without providing equal time to those with opposing views and should be prohibited under any circumstances from airing portions
which they know or should know to be factually false.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. As a member of the public
I am dismayed by their stated
intended actions
with respect to a Presidential Candidate. To be fair, I would also object if they aired beheadings in Iraq
as a representation of the President's character.
